

Monthly Quiet Days

Our monthly Quiet Days are an opportunity to enjoy some quiet space with not too much structure.

Each day has a different theme, sometimes linked to the church festivals.

During the day there are three times of Celtic style prayer together with the rest of the day for individual quiet time.

The days offer space for you to spend your own time with God as well as a focus for worship.

Service of Healing & Wholeness:
3.00-3.30pm

At the end of each day there is a service of healing and wholeness and an opportunity to be prayed for if you want to.

A home-cooked lunch is provided.

Suggested donation is £10.

(If the cost is a barrier you are welcome to come and give what you can.)

"Taste and see that the Lord is good;
blessed is the one who takes refuge in him."

Psalm 34: 8

QUIET MORNING

Saturday 15th July, 10.00am-1.30pm

The Meal Jesus Shared

This morning will look forward to the events of Holy Week and the meal that Jesus shared with his disciples before his Passion. We will spend time with different aspects of that evening.

At the end of the morning we will share bread and wine together as well as lunch, which is provided.

Suggested donation: £8.

CONTEMPLATIVE STUDY EVENING

Tuesday 8th August, 7.30-9.00pm

Forgiveness: a painful path but a glorious way

Forgiveness plays a central part in our Christian experience, both in terms of receiving the forgiveness of God through Jesus for ourselves, and our need to forgive others. However we don't often examine exactly what this may mean for us in particular circumstances. When we do we discover that forgiveness is indeed a very painful and sometimes almost impossible path, but with Gods help it is a glorious way.

Including time for quiet contemplation.

Led by Rev Preb Roger M Vaughan

Suggested donation: £6.

St Chad's House Library

St Chad's House has an extensive library of books on Christian theology and in particular Celtic Christianity.

The library will be open to visit every Saturday morning in August, from 10.00am to 1.00pm.

It is also a chance to visit the house and perhaps spend some quiet moments here.

Most books in the library are also available to borrow.
